

New Home Domination™: Online Course Teaches Real Estate Agents to Generate Free New Construction Leads from YouTube

New Home Domination™ Introduces New Online Course for Generating New Construction Leads for Real Estate Agents

BOWIE, MARYLAND, July 9, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In response to the shifting landscape of the real estate industry, the new online course, New Home Domination™, offers a fresh approach for real estate agents to generate free new construction leads. This comprehensive course provides real estate agents with the tools and strategies needed to leverage YouTube for attracting qualified buyer and seller leads by posting simple home tours on their channels.

New Home Domination™

Amid the changes brought about by the NAR lawsuit, where home sellers are no longer obligated to compensate the buyer's agent's commission, the course emphasizes the continuing opportunities with home builders. Home builders still offer commissions to agents who bring qualified buyers for newly constructed homes. New Home Domination™ covers essential methods that have successfully generated over 4000+ new construction buyer and seller leads for free on YouTube. Agents will learn how to create engaging home tour videos, utilize efficient editing tools to streamline the process to under 30 minutes, and understand the importance of choosing a niche to dominate their local market.

Additionally, the course delves into automating lead flow, integrating leads directly into CRMs such as KW Command and KV Core, ensuring a seamless process from lead generation to conversion.
