

Thumbwind Publications Launches New Facebook Group Celebrating History & Fun Along Michigan's M-25

Join the "History & Fun Along Michigan's M-25" Facebook group to explore and share the events, history, and attractions along Michigan's first scenic highway!

CASEVILLE, MI, UNITED STATES, July 9, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ --

Thumbwind Publications announces the launch of a new public Facebook group, "History & Fun Along Michigan's M-25." The group aims to connect individuals who appreciate the iconic Michigan State Highway M-25, its rich history, and the numerous events and attractions it offers.

M-25, one of the longest state highways in Michigan, spans over 147 miles along the picturesque shoreline of Lake Huron and Saginaw Bay. Not only a popular route for travelers, M-25 holds a significant place in Michigan's history. Originally a Native American trail, the highway played crucial roles in the lumber and shipping industries, contributing to its fascinating past.

Mike Hardy, founder of Thumbwind Publications, expressed enthusiasm about the new group: "We are thrilled to bring together a community of people who appreciate the beauty and history of M-25. Our hope is that this group will educate, entertain, and inspire people to explore and support the local businesses and communities along M-25."
