Sheryl Sandberg's Documentary on Violence Against Women by Hamas' weaponization of rape on October 7th

"We are honored to be collaborating with Hadassah Metro and the Marlene Meyerson JCC Manhattan to bring this powerful documentary to the New York City community," said Anila Ali, President of AMMWECC. "Through this event, we hope to spark meaningful conversations and encourage dialogue around the challenges facing women of all backgrounds."

"Violence against women is never OK. The Holy Quran orders 'men to be the protectors of women.' Islam prohibits attack on non-combatants, even during conflict," added Ali.

"As a global humanitarian organization, we at Hadassah are shaken to the core by the evidence of the weaponization of rape and other acts of sexual brutality in conflicts across the world," said Carol Ann Schwartz, National President of Hadassah. "We are excited to join forces with AMMWECC and the Marlene Meyerson JCC. By coming together, we can empower even more women, from all walks of life, to help raise awareness, demand justice and drive positive change than each of our organizations could on its own."

We are grateful to the following supporting organizations for their collaboration around this event: ADL New York/New Jersey, AEquitas, American Zionist Movement, A Wider Bridge, Elluminate, Emunah, I Believe Israeli Women Jewish Women International, Muslim Women Speakers, Network of Jewish Human Service Agencies, Simon Wiesenthal Center, UJA Federation of New York, and Zioness Movement.
