

NexHire: How US Startups Can Access Global Tech Talent

NexHire offers US-based startups a fast and cost-effective way to access top tech talent.

MANILA, NATIONAL CAPITAL REGION, PHILIPPINES, July 13, 2024

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Launched in late 2023, NexHire is a new talent solution for startups in emerging tech industries. The platform aims to help companies fill their most challenging roles by crowdsourcing candidates from top recruiters and talent networks.

NexHire is redefining modern recruitment by blending the accessibility of job boards with the high-value benefits of headhunters at a lower cost. The platform positions itself as a new category of recruitment solutions, specifically tailored to meet the needs of the tech industry.

For US-based startups, NexHire offers a fast and cost-effective way to access top tech talent. By tapping into a vast network of skilled recruiters, NexHire quickly delivers high-quality candidates, helping companies fill crucial roles efficiently. Over the past months, NexHire has successfully assisted AI startups and creative agencies in hiring for a wide range of remote positions, including UX/UI designers, web developers, and virtual assistants.

"Traditional recruitment methods often struggle to keep pace with rapid tech advancements and the increasingly globalized workforce," says Ritch Traballo, CEO of NexHire. "Our platform leverages the expertise of recruiters, and the power of talent networks to bring the best candidates to the forefront, ensuring that companies can innovate and thrive."

As a Philippine-based company, NexHire has a unique advantage in providing quality talent from Asia. The Philippines, and its neighboring countries, is renowned for its skilled workforce, especially in tech and creative fields. By operating locally, NexHire can tap into this rich talent
