

Ascendum Solutions Recognized a CNBC World's Top Fintech Company for the Second Year in a Row

Cincinnati-based digital innovation firm named a top Fintech company by the world leader in business news and market coverage.

CINCINNATI, OH, UNITED STATES, July 15, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ --

Ascendum Solutions, a global digital innovation firm, was recognized by CNBC and Statista as one of the 2024 World's Top Fintech Companies in the Business Process Solutions category. The segment includes companies offering finance-related and technology-based products and services to assist in enhancing and automating their processes and financial workflows.

This prestigious award reflects our team's exceptional skills, unwavering commitment to innovation and dedication to achieve our clients' digital transformation goals.”

Kris Nair, President & CEO

The list recognizes the top 250 fintech companies globally across nine categories. To be included in the top list is a positive recognition based on research of publicly available data sources and information received via an application process.

“We are deeply honored to be recognized by CNBC among the world's leading fintech companies for the second consecutive year,” said Kris Nair, President and CEO of Ascendum. “This prestigious award reflects our team’s exceptional skills, unwavering commitment to innovation and dedication to achieve our clients' digital transformation goals. I am indeed thankful to our employees for their outstanding performance every day, our clients for their enduring trust and collaboration, and to the evaluators for acknowledging our relentless drive for technology advancement.”

The top list is based on the analysis and weighting of overarching KPIs like Payments, Alternate Finance, Financial Planning, Digital Assets, Neobanking, Wealth Technology, Business Process Solutions, and Banking Solutions. These segment specific KPIs were derived from the collection of publicly available data points and open online application forms.

- Collection of publicly available data points for more than 2,000 companies.
- An open online application form filled out by more than 100 companies.

The selection of the companies and the definition of the evaluation criteria were based on independent journalistic criteria of CNBC and Statista. The evaluation was conducted by the statistics and market research company Statista.
