

Hewlett Packard Enterprise Honors Unified Technologies as 2024 Partner of the Year for Latin America

MIAMI, FL, USA, July 12, 2024

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Hewlett Packard Enterprise (HPE) has announced the winners of its 2024 HPE Partner of the Year Awards, in recognition of HPE partners who exemplify commitment and success in delivering value to their customers on their digital transformation journey. This recognition has been given to HPE partners who have achieved exceptional results in financial performance, innovative solutions, and meaningful business results.

The highly coveted award honors the close collaboration between HPE and UT in serving clients throughout the region and bringing them robust and trustworthy solutions to their Datacenter, Compute, Storage, Networking, and Business Continuity needs.

Unified Technologies (UT) is proud to be chosen as SMB Partner of the Year for Latin America 2024. The highly coveted award honors the close collaboration between HPE and UT in serving clients throughout the region and bringing them robust and trustworthy solutions to their Datacenter, Compute, Storage, Networking, and Business Continuity needs.

We deeply appreciate receiving this recognition from HPE, a Hybrid Cloud industry leader. We are thrilled to partner with them and look forward to strengthening our ties moving forward.”

Tony Silva, Unified Technologies CEO & Founder

"The 2024 HPE Partner Awards are a recognition of the focus and dedication these companies continue to make in delivering successful business outcomes for their customers," said Simon Ewington, VP of Worldwide Channel & Partner Ecosystem, HPE. "Partnering is in our DNA, and celebrating the tremendous investment these winners made in HPE innovation is one way we can showcase the impressive results we deliver together for customers."

The Award was presented during the 2024 Partner Growth

Summit, held in Las Vegas from June 17 to 20, 2024.

Unified Technologies has long leveraged the capabilities of HPE's Hybrid IT solutions to integrate best-in-class technologies and its unparalleled commitment to service to bring streamlined information storage solutions to their customers. By providing the most secure, reliable and flexible IT infrastructures, UT enables its customers to maximize their technology needs today and into the future.

"We thank HPE for its continued support (and partnership) and salute our team for their consistent hard work in delivering with excellence for all of our clients," said Rob Evers of Unified Technologies.

CEO and Founder Tony Silva added, "We deeply appreciate receiving this recognition from HPE, a Hybrid Cloud industry leader. We are thrilled to partner with them and look forward to strengthening our ties moving forward, as we work together for the benefit of the clients who count on us."
