

Champ Bailey and “Signing Day” Team Heading to Macon Film Festival for Georgia Entertainment Unscripted Roadshow Stop

Event at Georgia Sports Hall of Fame will celebrate the art of film in GA while spotlighting a sports legend

ATLANTA, GEORGIA, UNITED STATES, July 15, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Macon Film Festival

“

The Macon Film Festival consistently highlights the incredible talent we have here in Georgia and showcases it to the world.”

Champ Bailey, Professional Football Hall of Famer

(MFF) is proud to partner with Georgia Entertainment to celebrate the art of film in Georgia while spotlighting the legacy of a sports legend involved with the film, “Signing Day” at the 2024 Georgia Entertainment Unscripted Roadshow on Aug. 15 at 4:00 p.m. at the Georgia Sports Hall of Fame.

The event will include a special panel discussion featuring the production team of the new film "Signing Day," a premiere of the film trailer, and a meet and greet with the film’s executive producer, Professional Football Hall of Famer and University of Georgia legend Champ Bailey at a newly-erected exhibit showcasing his memorabilia.

“Signing Day” is entirely homegrown in Georgia, having been written, developed, produced and financed within the state. In addition to Bailey, the panel will consist of “Signing Day,” Writer/Director Glen Owen of State Line Films, Producer Don Mandrik of Georgia Production Finance, and Producer Seth Ingram.

“The Macon Film Festival consistently highlights the incredible talent we have here in Georgia and showcases it to the world,” Bailey said. “Being involved in 'Signing Day' has shown me the incredible synergy between Georgia's film industry and its sports culture. The film, festival and event are a testament to how our state nurtures talent and fosters collaborations that highlight Georgia's rich heritage in both arenas.”

The Georgia Entertainment Unscripted Roadshow highlights entertainment opportunities in the region with a focus on workforce development and local businesses participating in the growth of the creative economy. The events were crafted with the aim of uniting local elected officials, economic development leaders and professionals from the creative industries. Beyond fostering networking opportunities, participants gain insights from experts on workforce development trends and educational initiatives.

"These events demonstrate the importance of collaboration in driving our creative economy forward," Georgia Entertainment Founder and CEO Randy Davidson said. "By bringing together leaders from various sectors, we can ensure that Georgia remains at the forefront of both the film industry and economic development."

The 19th annual MFF showcases various categories of traditional independent films and awards, including the Melvyn Douglass Best in Show Award, Best of Narrative Feature Category, Best of Documentary Category, Best of Documentary Shorts Category, Best of Fulldome Film Category, Best of Georgia Made Category, Best of Narrative Shorts Category, Best of LGBTQ Category, Best of Student Shorts Category, the Karen Black Audience Choice - Narrative, Audience Choice - Documentary and the Festival Special Mention Award.

"The Macon Film Festival is committed to nurturing local talent and providing a platform for their work," MFF President Justin Andrews said. "Our partnership with the Georgia Entertainment Unscripted Roadshow is a key part of that mission, highlighting the unique opportunities and rich culture that make Georgia a hub for creative professionals."

MFF is a filmmaker-focused, family-friendly event taking place from Aug. 15-18. It features daily film screenings, celebrity guests, filmmaker workshops, fulldome immersive content, and special screenings. The festival is held at iconic venues such as The Douglass Theatre, Georgia Sports Hall of Fame, Macon's Museum of Arts & Sciences and Theatre Macon.

At 43,000 square feet, The Georgia Sports Hall of Fame, located in Downtown Macon, is the nation's largest state sanctioned Sports Hall of Fame Museum. With more than 500 elite athletes and sports celebrities inducted, the Hall is a treasure trove of who's who in the sports world. Visit the Hall and find out about Hank Aaron, Bobby Jones, Ty Cobb, Hines Ward, Maya Moore, Calvin Johnson, Herschel Walker, John Smoltz, Laura Coble and many more. Learn about the two father son duos: James C. Bagby Sr and Jr and Ernie Johnson Sr and Jr. With over 4,000 artifacts collected since 1956 the The Georgia Sports Hall of Fame has so many interesting things to see. Hear their stories of goal setting, commitment, and discipline that propelled them from being a good athlete to performing at an elite level. The Georgia Sports Hall of Fame is a great place to visit and a great place to learn. For more information please visit www.georgiasportshalloffame.com/.

Macon Film Festival

To RSVP, please visit www.georgiaentertainment.com/event-rsvp-macon-2024/. For more information about MFF, please visit maconfilmfestival.com.

Amy W Parrish
Rhythm Communications
+1 404-310-6559
aparrish@rhythmcommunications.com
Visit us on social media:
Facebook
X
Instagram

This press release can be viewed online at: <https://www.einpresswire.com/article/727750202>

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

© 1995-2024 Newsmatics Inc. All Right Reserved.