

OP360 Named Finalist for Company for Philippines Regional Development of the Year

OP360, a global BPO company, has been named one of the finalists for the Company for Regional Development of the Year award at Solaia: The IT-BPM Awards

MANILA, PHILIPPINES, July 16, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- OP360 (OfficePartners360), an award-winning global BPO company, has been named one of only 6 finalists for the Company for Regional Development of the Year award at the inaugural Solaia: The IT-BPM Awards.

Organized by the IT and Business Process Association of the Philippines (IBPAP), the awards ceremony celebrated the outstanding achievements driving the Philippine IT-BPM sector forward. For OP360, the recognition underscores its commitment to supporting the local communities and economies of the cities it calls home.

Our Philippine operations in Cebu, Davao, and Cagayan de Oro power our global service capabilities as we also enrich the economic ecosystems of these regions.”

*Cynirene Rodriguez, Sr.
Implementation Manager*

Present to receive a bar of recognition on behalf of OP360 was Senior Implementations Manager Cynirene Rodriguez.

“Being named a finalist attests to our strategic focus on building our footprint beyond traditional outsourcing hubs. Our Philippine operations in Cebu, Davao, and Cagayan de Oro power our global service capabilities as we also enrich the economic ecosystems of these regions,” she said.

Having operations in frontier cities that rival the status quo has enabled OP360 to tap and invest in new talent pools to cater to the increasing need for customized outsourcing solutions, advocating for both outsourcing excellence and balanced regional development.
