This partnership will leverage Webuters' expertise in AI, digital transformation, cloud and other technologies to support IICSR's mission of promoting sustainable and responsible business practices. Webuters will provide IICSR with various IT solutions, including OfficeIQ, Moodle, WIX, Zoho CRM and other cutting-edge technologies.

"Technology plays a vital role in accelerating sustainable development. We are thrilled to have Webuters as our IT partner in the journey and have already witnessed the benefits of their technology integration," said Harsha, MD, at IICSR. We are confident that Webuters' expertise will be instrumental in helping us advance our mission.

"We are thrilled to partner with IICSR, a respected organisation that is leading the way in corporate sustainability," said Krishna Bhatt, CEO at Webuters. "We believe that our technology experience will play a vital role in helping IICSR achieve its goals and empower businesses to operate more sustainably."
