

Special Episode Announcement: "Let's Talk About The Other 'F' Word" with Dr. Nina Savelle-Rocklin

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, July 17, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Featuring Emmy Award-Winning Comedian Ian Karmel and Dr. Alisa Karmel

Renowned psychoanalyst and host Dr. Nina Savelle-Rocklin is thrilled to announce a highly anticipated episode of her show, The Binge Cure with Dr. Nina. This special episode, airing on Thursday, July 18, 2024, at 12PM PST on VoiceAmerica Health and Wellness, will feature Emmy award-winning comedian Ian Karmel and his sister, Dr. Alisa Karmel, as they delve into their new book, The T-Shirt Swim Club: Stories of Being Fat in a World of Thin People.

Exploring the Other 'F' Word

In this engaging episode, Ian and Alisa Karmel will share their personal stories about growing up overweight and the profound impact it has had on their lives. As children, discussions about weight were non-existent, overshadowed by sibling rivalries like fighting over the last SnackWell's Devil's Food cookie. Now, with a clearer understanding of their health, they are ready to discuss the emotional and social challenges they face.

A Place of Support and Humor

Dr. Nina Savelle-Rocklin will lead this heartfelt and humorous conversation, providing a platform where weight issues can be discussed openly and without shame. The T-Shirt Swim Club, as described in their book, is a supportive community for those who struggle with weight, offering empathy, understanding, and a touch of humor. Tune in for an insightful discussion on societal attitudes towards fat people and the journey towards self-acceptance.
