Lyle Dos Santos, General Manager of Rivers FC, expressed his enthusiasm: "We are thrilled to welcome Fulham FC and Aston Villa to Kamloops for the first time. This event represents a huge step forward in our efforts to promote soccer in our community and connect Kamloops with the global soccer stage. We can't wait to share this experience with everyone and see the positive impact it will have on our young players and fans."

Dino Bernardo, President of the Kamloops Youth Soccer Association, added:

"Our community's world-class facilities make events like these possible. This is a fantastic opportunity for youth soccer players to see and learn from top-tier international talent right here in Kamloops. We are excited to welcome these teams and look forward to a summer filled with soccer excitement."

Tickets are available now at the Kamloops International Cup website. Fans are encouraged to secure their seats early to witness these historic matches and be part of the vibrant soccer community in Kamloops.
