

Mayhem at the Copa América Final - Get Justice for Your Injuries

If you were injured as a result of the crowd surge at the Copa América Final, you may be entitled to compensation.

CORPUS CHRISTI, TX, UNITED STATES, July 21, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- MAYHEM AT THE COPA AMÉRICA FINAL ON JULY 14TH

The Copa América Final between Argentina and Colombia on Sunday, July 14, 2024, was supposed to be a thrilling culmination of South America's premiere soccer tournament. Instead, it turned into a scene of chaos and mayhem as thousands of ticketless fans stormed the gates of Hard Rock Stadium in Miami Gardens. The scenes that unfolded were reminiscent of a nightmare, leaving many injured and raising serious concerns about safety and security protocols.

TOTAL CHAOS AT HARD ROCK STADIUM

As hordes of unruly fans jumped over gates, squeezed through ducts, and trampled over others, the situation quickly escalated into a dangerous frenzy. Security personnel were seen lifting children out of the swarming crowd, while others desperately tried to hold back the surging masses. In the sweltering South Florida heat, a handful of people could be seen receiving medical treatment and asking for water.

INJURED IN THE CROWD SURGE? YOU MAY BE ENTITLED TO COMPENSATION

chaos, questioning why the organizers were not better prepared and why there weren't sufficient protocols in place to keep out ticketless guests.

Significant compensation may be available for:

Physical injuries inflicted by unruly fans
Post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD)
Other injuries resulting from the mayhem
