

Leading Interior Designer Offers Course In Manifesting Abundance

Nancy Swanton Inspires Personal Growth Through Home Decorating

BEND, OREGON, UNITED STATES, July 23, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Renowned Los Angeles interior designer Nancy Swanton, founder of Abundant Home Design and Bend resident, is transforming lives with a groundbreaking new program that blends the power of the Law of Attraction with the science of interior design.

Launched earlier this year, Swanton's digital Guide to Living in Abundance course reveals the hidden connection between home decorating, layout, and design and one's ability to manifest the life of their dreams. "Your environment could be working against you, blocking all of your desires from reaching you," explains Swanton, CEO of Abundant Home Design.

The genesis for her course began in 2007 when she carved out a niche for herself as "The Design Doctor." Swanton says she's not about pretty pictures or current trends but rather empowering others to become master manifestors by harnessing the science of design, blended with the power of the Law of Attraction.

"If you're looking to renovate your kitchen, I can refer you to many wonderful designers, but if you want to RENOVATE YOUR LIFE, I'm the designer for you!"

The missing piece to manifesting is your home!"

Downloadable for $144 at www.abundanthomedesign.com, the self-guided, step-by-step course consists of eight life-changing keys to unlock The Vortex (one's alignment with Source energy) and transform one's home into a powerful magnet for manifesting.
