Expertise in Puppy Training

Ready, Pup, Go! stands out in the dog training industry by specializing exclusively in puppies. Unlike most trainers who address issues after they arise, Ready, Pup, Go! works proactively with owners to prevent common problems such as potty training difficulties, crate training mishaps, bite inhibition issues, and separation anxiety. The company's founder, Michelle Thomas, recognizes the prevalence of outdated and harmful training methods and is committed to promoting positive, science-based techniques that foster well-behaved and well-adjusted dogs.

The Power of Virtual Training

Virtual training with Ready, Pup, Go! is as effective as in-person sessions, offering flexibility and accessibility to puppy owners across the United States. By leveraging technology, Thomas provides personalized support and guidance, ensuring that each puppy receives the attention and training they need to thrive. This approach not only helps owners avoid common mistakes but also reduces the demand on behavioral vets and consultants, making professional guidance more affordable and accessible.

Preventing Puppy Blues and Regret

Puppy blues and regret can be overwhelming for new owners, leading to difficult decisions about rehoming or returning their puppies. Ready, Pup, Go! addresses these challenges head-on by offering early education and ongoing support, helping owners navigate the ups and downs of puppyhood with confidence. By empowering owners with the knowledge and tools they need, Ready, Pup, Go! aims to create a positive and rewarding experience for both puppies and their families.

What Sets Ready, Pup, Go! Apart

Ready, Pup, Go! offers a unique approach to puppy training, similar to parenting classes for expectant parents. This proactive, educational model helps owners build a strong foundation for their puppies, preventing behavioral issues before they become entrenched.
