

U.S. high-quality agricultural organization to meet with Philippines food manufacturers

MANKATO, MINNESOTA, UNITED STATES, July 25, 2024

/EINPresswire.com/ -- A delegation from the Specialty Soya and Grains Alliance (SSGA), the identity preserved agriculture alliance of the U.S., will be meeting and promoting high-quality, traceable field crops with food manufacturing and importing companies in the Manila, Philippines, area Aug. 7-9.

The delegation will visit food manufacturing and importing companies, including Miracle Soybean Food International Corp., Everflowing Fortune Trading, Inc. and Asia Brewing, to discuss the value of the U.S. Identity Preserved trademark and quality assurance protocol that signifies a premium crop with a verifiable origin. The delegation will also meet with representatives of the USDA Foreign Agricultural Service in Manila.

The SSGA delegation will be available for media opportunities to talk about high-quality, traceable field crops from the U.S. They can be available to meet at our hotel, Fairmont Makati, on Thursday, Aug. 8, for lunch at 12:00 or after lunch at 13:00. The delegation will also be available for phone or video interviews prior at pre-arranged times.
