The announcement of Bonamassa's Spring U.S. 2025 Tour follows the release of his acclaimed live concert film and album, Live At The Hollywood Bowl With Orchestra, which debuted at #1 on the Billboard Blues Albums chart, further solidifying Bonamassa's record for the most #1s in the chart's history. This latest release also debuted at #1 on the Billboard Classical Album and Classical Crossover Album charts and #17 on the Top Album Sales chart. The project captures the grandeur of Bonamassa's historic performance at the iconic Hollywood Bowl, featuring orchestral arrangements that elevate his signature blues-rock sound to new heights. Fans can order Live At The Hollywood Bowl With Orchestra NOW.

The Spring 2025 Tour will take Bonamassa through a diverse array of venues, from the vibrant Fox Theatre in Atlanta, GA, to the historic Beacon Theatre in New York City, NY. Each show promises to deliver a powerful blend of blues and rock, showcasing Joe's extraordinary guitar prowess and soulful vocals. The tour will visit a variety of iconic theaters and arenas, ensuring an intimate yet grand experience for concertgoers. Joe's Spring Tour leads into his 10th Milestone voyage of Keeping The Blues Alive at Sea sailing from Miami to Harvest Caye, Belize and Costa Maya, Mexico on March 21-26, 2025. The currently sold out, biggest blues-rock party at sea, will feature an all-star lineup alongside Bonamassa including Big Head Todd & the Monsters, Larkin Poe, Christone "Kingfish" Ingram, Samantha Fish, Eric Gales, Joanne Shaw Taylor, Jimmy Vivino, Judith Hill, Robert Jon & The Wreck, Eddie 9V, Thunderstorm Artis, Bywater Call, Lachy Doley, Taj Farrant, Nat Myers, Mathias Lattin and Muireann Bradley. Visit www.bluesaliveatsea.com for more information.

Before embarking on the Spring 2025 Tour, Bonamassa will be busy with an extensive schedule of performances. Next month, he kicks off the highly anticipated Blues Deluxe Tour, celebrating his seminal albums Blues Deluxe and Blues Deluxe Vol. 2. This summer tour includes 18 cities and features a mix of fan favorites and deep tracks, promising unforgettable shows for blues enthusiasts. Never one to slow down, Bonamassa will also be on the road this fall for a series of performances across the U.S., continuing to deliver his unmatched live experience to fans nationwide.

Bonamassa's impact on the blues-rock genre is immeasurable. Guitar World has hailed him as "the world's biggest blues guitarist," a testament to his skill, influence, and role in bringing blues rock to the forefront of the music scene. With a career spanning over three decades, Bonamassa has consistently captivated audiences around the globe with his dynamic live performances and musical ingenuity.

In addition to his musical releases and touring, Bonamassa remains dedicated to his philanthropic efforts through the Keeping The Blues Alive Foundation (KTBA). With the success of KTBA's numerous programs, including the Fueling Musicians Program and virtual blues education initiatives, the foundation has raised over 2.7 million in fundraising and continues to grow. To date, the foundation has impacted over 100,000 students across the United States and provided essential support to hundreds of musicians.
