

POET VINCENT J. TOMEO RECOUNTS MEMORABLE ENCOUNTERS AND ENDURING WISDOM IN HIS LATEST POETRY COLLECTION

This stirring 80-paged masterpiece reflects on the intricacies of life and finds refuge in the universal ties that connect everyone

YORBA LINDA, CALIFORNIA, USA, July 27, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Renowned author Vincent J. Tomeo honors the interdependence of humanity through his highly acclaimed release entitled, "My Cemetery Friends: A Garden of Encounters at Mount Saint Mary in Queens," New York." This work opens a portal to a contemplative journey through the pathways of a living museum.

In this evocative anthology, Tomeo's poetic prose brings to life the quiet corners of Mount Saint Mary, uncovering deep connections and stories that artfully reveal the concept of six degrees of separation. Tomeo's story resounds with themes of empathy, nature, and the enduring spirit of humanity—from honoring families, friends, and military members to appreciating the lives of the forgotten and unnamed.

In her review, Amazon customer S.J. Main describes the book as a "timeless celebration of life," commending its artful storytelling. Another reader praises the author's adept fusion of poetry, prose, and photography, enhancing the reading experience with immersive depth. Tomeo's vivid and tranquil depiction of the cemetery enriches the book's introspective tone, leaving a lasting impression on readers.

Born in Corona, Queens, New York City, Vincent J. Tomeo is an internationally recognized poet whose poetry has touched audiences worldwide. His literary career has spanned multiple honors, such as receiving an Honorable Mention in the Rainer Maria Rilke International Poetry Competition and having his poem "A View from a Tower in Calabria, Italy" immortalized in marble
