

Jenna Williams selected as Top Small Business Administration Specialist of the Year by IAOTP

Jenna Williams honored member of the International Association of Top Professionals (IAOTP) and will be honored at their awards gala in Nashville

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, August 5, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Jenna Williams, VP, SBA Specialist, and Commercial Loan Officer, was recently selected as Top Small Business Administration Specialist of the Year for 2024 by the International Association of Top Professionals (IAOTP) for her outstanding leadership, dedication, and commitment to the industry.

Inclusion with the International Association of Top Professionals is an honor in itself; only a few members in each discipline are chosen for this distinction. These special honorees are distinguished based on their professional accomplishments, academic achievements, leadership abilities, longevity in the field, other affiliations, and contributions to their communities. All Honorees are invited to attend the IAOTP annual award gala at the end of this year for a night to honor their achievements.

With over two decades of experience in the industry, Ms. Williams has certainly proven herself as an expert in her field. As a dynamic, results driven leader, Ms. Williams a Vice President and U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) business development officer with the Heritage Bank of Commerce in California. With reputable expertise in business development, business administration, investments, and lending, Ms. Williams works with customers and provides them with information regarding the process of receiving and qualifying for SBA loans.

Committed to the process of providing unequivocal service to her clients, Ms. Williams works closely with her administrative staff to ensure all loan documentation is completed efficiently with quick and consistent results. Ms. Williams has performed at various financial institutions and focused her efforts on commercial lending over personal banking, with a large focus on networking.

Prior to her latest position at the Heritage Bank of Commerce, Ms. Williams became a real estate investor, loan officer, and commercial relationship manager with Fremont Bank. In addition, she was a business development officer with Wells Fargo and previously spent more than a decade with the company as an Assistant Vice President. Beyond major financial institutions, Ms. Williams also worked for Silicon Maps Inc. and was a Communications Consultant for Inter-Tel.

Throughout her illustrious career, Ms. Williams has received many awards and accolades and has been recognized worldwide for her accomplishments. She was recognized by Marquis Who's Who of Professional Women for Business, Finance and Leadership. This year she will be considered for the Empowered Woman Award and to be featured in TIP (Top Industry Professionals) Magazine. She will be honored at IAOTP's annual awards gala at the Gaylord Opryland Resort in Nashville this December for her selection as Top Small Business Administration Specialist of the Year.

In addition to her successful career, Ms. Williams is a member of Commercial Real Estate Women (CREW), a nonprofit organization focused on female professionals in that industry. With CREW, she has held numerous positions, including serving on the board as well as a committee chair.

The President of the International Association of Top Professionals (IAOTP), Stephanie Ciriemi, stated: "Choosing Ms. Williams for this honor was an easy decision for our panel to make. She is inspirational, influential, and a true visionary and thought leader. We cannot wait to meet her and celebrate her accomplishments at this year's gala."

Looking back, Ms. Williams attributes her success to her integrity, fulfilling her commitments, and meeting her goals. When not working, she enjoys playing golf, gardening, and cooking. She also practices the pranayama yogic technique focused on breath regulation. In the future, she hopes to inspire and influence those getting into the field.
