

Brenda Bass Joins KP Public Affairs Advocacy Team

SACRAMENTO, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, August 6, 2024

/EINPresswire.com/ -- KP Public Affairs (KP) is pleased to announce that Brenda Bass has joined the firm's advocacy team. Brenda brings a wealth of knowledge and expertise, having served as a senior lobbyist for the California Chamber of Commerce handling water, environmental, agriculture, and energy issues. She has worked extensively on complex water supply, quality, and groundwater issues, building coalitions on legislative and regulatory proposals, and representing the business community in the California Legislature.

"Brenda is a great addition to the KP team and will play a key role as we continue to grow our business in the water and environmental areas," said Michael Burns, managing partner at KP. "Her track record of policy achievements will undoubtedly enhance the exceptional value that we strive to deliver to clients."

"I am excited to join the team of experienced professionals at KP and look forward to providing legislative advocacy counsel and strategy to KP's impressive roster of clients," said Brenda. "KP has a great reputation in the capitol community, and I am eager to contribute to obtaining meaningful results for the firm's clients."

Prior to her role as a senior lobbyist for the California Chamber of Commerce, Brenda worked as an attorney representing a wide range of clients in water rights, California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA), stormwater, and recycled water matters.
