

Gulf Coast International Properties Agents Attend Women's Empowerment Luncheon

NAPLES, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, August 13, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Agents at Gulf Coast International Properties® recently supported The Immokalee Foundation's 3rd annual Women's Empowerment Luncheon, recognizing the extraordinary leadership and lasting impact of women on our shared community.

The event took place July 26th at The Club at Olde Cypress. The luncheon highlighted powerhouse local philanthropic businesswomen who support the organization's mission to provide resources, tools, and opportunity to the youth of Immokalee for a pathway to success through educational and career-building opportunities.

The event was attended by four GCIP agents, Ruth Morency, Roberta Jucius, Cathryn Ruff, and Kristin Dohner. When asked about the luncheon, Ruth Morency stated, "This was an inspiring event that brought together strong, driven women committed to making a difference. The luncheon was a celebration of empowerment and the importance of education, mentorship, and support systems in shaping the future of young women in our community. It was truly inspiring to hear from leaders dedicated to uplifting others and to witness firsthand the incredible impact The Immokalee Foundation has on the lives of so many. The event was a reminder that when women come together, we can create lasting change and empower the next generation to reach their full potential."

Roberta Jucius added, "It was an absolute pleasure attending The Immokalee Foundation Women's Empowerment Luncheon. It was an eye opening and heart-warming experience to be able to listen and learn from women who have made a huge impact in the community as well as those who've received the support and have grown from it. It truly takes a village to guide and support the children of our communities, and The Immokalee Foundation Women's Empowerment is doing just that.”
