Xuntos

Growing up half-Spanish & half-Dutch, Chef Sandra Cordero spent the school year in Amsterdam & her summers in Spain, on the family farm & A Coruña, Galicia. She entered the front-of-house as a teenager, travelled the world in her 20's & moved to New York City spending a lot of time in Nolita cafes before coming to Los Angeles to open Royal/T in Culver City. Her kitchen career began here at Grace, followed by Test Kitchen & others before setting off on her own. In 2015 she opened Gasolina Cafe on Ventura Blvd. Woodland Hills, offering Spanish breakfast & lunch and, now, epic Paella Nights. She designed & opened Xuntos in Santa Monica Summer 2023, serving pintxos & tapas 5 blocks from the beach. Cordero is a James Beard WEL Fellow & co-founder of Regarding Her, a national nonprofit supporting women in hospitality. www.XuntosBar.com

I'm grateful to host Love to Celebrate Women Party at Xuntos owned by Chef Sandra Cordero. I met her at LA Magazine's Best New Restaurants Party earlier this year!"
