FIDE Senior Representative

innovative music collective, is thrilled to announce the release of their unique multi-genre album series designed to captivate the global chess community. This unprecedented project features four distinct albums, each presenting the same lyrics across different genres: Pop, Dance, Acoustic, and Blues.

With over 600 Million Chess Players Globally which includes 12% of UK citizens playing at least one game of chess a year - (YouGov Survey 2012 - 12% of UK Citizens play chess), we announce the release of a groundbreaking easy listening music album that combines the strategic depth of chess with the relaxing effects of easy listening music. The album of 14 songs is designed to help listeners relax while simultaneously learning and improving their chess skills.

Queen's Gambit is a unique "First" in Chess, as a Multi Genre Themed Strategy set of music albums, aptly named after one of the tunes. This innovative set of albums is perfect for various settings such as commuting, chilling, traveling, or working, where music is allowed. Regular listening may help improve the listener's chess game by cementing key concepts into muscle memory while enjoying soothing and engaging tunes.
