Inspired by the relentless drive of gamers who refuse to give up, "Back for More" explores the thrill of competition and the unquenchable desire to rise victorious, even when the odds are stacked against you. It's a celebration of resilience, grit, and the unstoppable determination to keep fighting for glory.

"We wanted to capture the rush of adrenaline and the competitive fire that gamers experience when they're in the zone," says A.D.A.M. Music Project frontman Adam DeGraide. "There's something primal about the desire to win, especially when the stakes are high. 'Back for More' reflects that energy and the idea that no matter how tough the battle, you just keep coming back, ready for more."

With its hard-hitting sound and relatable theme, "Back for More" is poised to resonate with not just rock fans, but also the gaming community. Known for their genre-blending style, A.D.A.M. Music Project infuses modern hard rock with electronic elements, creating a sound that's both fresh and familiar, drawing listeners into their immersive musical world.

Following the success of their previous releases, A.D.A.M. Music Project is quickly establishing itself as a force to be reckoned with in the rock scene. "Back for More" continues to build on their growing momentum and sets the stage for even bigger things to come as they plan to hit the road touring in the near future.

*"Back for More" lyric video will be available on A.D.A.M. Music Project's YouTube page on September 12, 2024 at 9:00 pm EST.

*"Back for More" will be available on all major streaming platforms, including Spotify, Apple Music, Amazon Music, and YouTube, on September 13, 2024.
