The evening's distinguished guest speakers included former Mayor of Englewood Cliffs Mario M. Kranjac, Trump Campaign Advisory Board Member and Fox News contributor Mr. Jason D. Meister, and Clifton GOP Chair Bob Calcagno. Each speaker strongly endorsed Dr. Mujtaba, highlighting his dedication to improving Passaic County and his strategic vision for the future.

Also in attendance were prominent community leaders, including the Chairman of the Islamic Center, representatives from the Muslim Lawyer Association, Peruvian doctors, Colombian community leaders, and the commissioner of Clifton's Board of Education. Their presence underscored the wide-ranging support Dr. Mujtaba has garnered from various community sectors.

In his address to the audience, Dr. Mujtaba spoke passionately about his commitment to bringing meaningful change to Passaic County. He laid out his plans for fostering economic development, improving public services, and enhancing community engagement. "I am determined to bring progress and prosperity to Passaic County," he stated. "The current administration under the Democrats has left us at a standstill, and I am ready to lead with resilience and vision."

The event hall was filled with energy and enthusiasm as Dr. Mujtaba detailed his vision for a brighter future. The evening was a powerful showcase of the growing momentum behind his campaign as he continues to engage key constituencies in his bid for County Commissioner.

As the November 5, 2024, election approaches, Dr. Assad Mujtaba's campaign is gaining widespread support from diverse communities across Passaic County. It promises a strong Republican challenge to the incumbent leadership.
