About ChangebyDesign

The Courtyard House was commissioned by Mr. and Mrs. Lin, a retired couple who had long dreamed of building their retirement home. The project began with a collaborative search for the perfect site and evolved into a design that reflects Mr. Lin's passion for collecting antique swords and his love for drawing. As a part-time artist and former cake factory owner, Mr. Lin appreciates the beauty in raw and rough textures that age gracefully over time. The design team at ChangebyDesign worked closely with the couple to create a home that not only meets their retirement needs but also embodies their unique tastes and interests.
