

NRI students and families in Canada can now have timely, culturally sensitive access to mental health care by emroPsync

EMRO Doctors launches emroPsync, the first multilingual Telemental health platform that provides counselling, assessments and psychological services for NRIs

ANCASTER, ONTARIO, CANADA, October 1, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- EMRO Doctors Inc. announced the launch of emroPsync, a patient-centric, on-demand Telemental health service platform providing timely, affordable, safe virtual mental health care solutions. The emroPsync allows non-resident Indians (NRIs) and South Asians to seek affordable mental health support in their native language, providing inclusive and culturally appropriate help for those in need, be it students, new couples, families and seniors. The emroPsync platform offers a dedicated video conferencing system, digital cognitive assessments, and cognitive therapy tools for mental health experts. Clients can get support in over 22 languages emphasizing Punjabi, Hindi, Gujarati, Marathi, Bengali, Tamil, Telugu, and Malayalam-speaking professionals on emroPsync.

As an immigrant, I had witnessed the healthcare gaps in Canada, but after COVID-19, we saw demands for timely access to mental healthcare increase, especially for non-English speaking immigrants.”

Punjabi-speaking people in Canada alone. “Non-native English speaking people, who are outside their country, are looking for timely access to mental health support in their own spoken language. Our platform, emroPsyc, will provide affordable, fast, and high-quality mental health care anywhere and anytime using modern approaches and accessible services, offering much-needed mental health support across these communities,” said Dr. Eva Szabo, Co-Founder and Chief Executive Officer of EMRO Doctors Inc.

“The platform allows non-resident Indian (NRI) clients to connect with consultants and senior consultants who are clinical psychologists, rehabilitation psychologists, counsellors, psychotherapists and even special educators to get support in their native language. emroPsyc platform will provide people outside their home countries with fast, safe and quality mental health support from consultants they trust in their countries,” said Dr. Vinay Singh, Co-Founder and Chief Operations Officer of EMRO Doctors Inc. “The video conferencing capability and state-of-the-art cognitive assessment and therapy tools by Orange Neurosciences as part of the platform will provide better quality care and reassurance that our clients can trust,” added Dr. Singh.

How emroPsyc by EMRO Doctors works:

emroPsyc is designed to allow seamless dialogue between licensed mental health experts and individuals seeking mental health support. People needing help can go to emroPsyc.com, and book a meeting with a consultant by first selecting a language they want to get consultation after creating an account. They can filter the search by choosing a
