On October 1, Rocky Mountain Gaming CC, LLC finalized the acquisition of two, iconic casinos in Cripple Creek, Colorado.

COLORADO SPRINGS, CO, UNITED STATES, October 3, 2024

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Rocky Mountain Gaming CC, LLC (RMG) completed their acquisition of Johnny Nolon's Casino and the Colorado Grande Casino in Cripple Creek, Colo., on October 1, 2024. The company received final licensing approval from the Colorado Division of Gaming at their monthly meeting on September 19. The deal was first announced in December 2023.

Rocky Mountain Gaming CC, LLC closed on the acquisition of Johnny Nolon's and Colorado Grande Casinos in Cripple Creek on October 1.

RMG was founded by David D. Ross, Michael J. Gaughan III and Joseph J. Canfora to seek gaming opportunities throughout the U.S. Ross and Gaughan have worked together for approximately 30 years in Senior Management for Coast Casinos, Affinity Gaming and the JW Marriott & Rampart Casino. Canfora was the owner of Wildwood Casino in Cripple Creek until selling its operating assets to Golden Nugget in 2022. Canfora has more than 40 years of experience in gaming and hospitality.

"It's been a long but exciting ride, and we are thrilled to be stepping back into the Cripple Creek community," Canfora said. "We've been meeting with the current team members to get their feedback on improvements and, most importantly, we made sure that all of the current team members who want to stay with us have that opportunity."

Rocky Mountain Gaming CC, LLC plans on honoring and maintaining the historic atmosphere of Cripple Creek while making improvements to enhance the guest experience.

"Michael and I have been looking for an opportunity to get back into the Colorado gaming market for the last 10 years." said Ross. "We've put together a detailed plan with exciting changes
