With a mission to disrupt the collision repair industry, VIVE Collision, is known for reimagining the collision repair experience by focusing on their people, advanced technology, industry-leading training, and transparent communication throughout the entire process.

“

This milestone exemplifies our growth and the strength of our mission to revive the industry with high-quality, people-first collision repair.”

Vive Collision CEO & Co-Founder, Vartan Jerian, Jr.

The company's core values are People, Process and Passion, and at every VIVE Collision location, including the addition of the Newington facility, each vehicle receives meticulous attention from a team of skilled and passionate experts.

“As we welcome our 50th location to the VIVE Family, I'm filled with immense pride and gratitude for our team's unwavering dedication and talent,” said CEO & Co-Founder, Vartan Jerian, Jr. “This milestone exemplifies our growth and the strength of our mission to revive the industry with high-quality, people-first collision repair. I eagerly anticipate the new heights we will reach together, continuing to set the standard for quality and innovation across the Northeast.”

VIVE Collision's leadership team consists of industry experts with decades of experience in all aspects of collision repair. VIVE's strategy includes investing heavily in continuous training for staff, and ensuring technicians are equipped with the latest tools, equipment, and technology.

This dedication to quality allows us to provide top-notch repair services that consistently exceed expectations and fosters an environment for our team where they can thrive.

Located at 172 Kelsey St, the facility boasts approximately 14,000 square feet and is VIVE Collision's fourth location in Connecticut. With a reputation for delivering top-quality repairs and unmatched customer satisfaction, VIVE is excited to welcome new teammates and invest in significant upgrades and improvements to the facility, which will bring the same excellence and commitment to the Newington area.
