Elias Arjan, the host of the conference, welcomed attendees with an engaging opening speech that established the event's focus on health optimization through scientific methods. A distinguished figure in biohacking, Arjan drew from his extensive background as a health and wellness educator and entrepreneur to highlight the significance of personalized wellness strategies. His commitment to evidence-based approaches to healthspan and longevity set an inspiring tone for the conference, inviting participants to explore the latest biohacking and wellness innovation advancements.

Day One: Transformative Sessions and Hands-On Knowledge Sharing

Mick Safron and Olia Chernova, Founders of the Biohackers World Conference, officially opened the event with a warm welcome speech. They set the stage for an engaging event, emphasizing the conference's mission to foster a community dedicated to exploring the frontiers of biohacking and wellness.

"The future is here, and it's happening now. Biohackers World is more than an event—it's a community of curious minds ready to explore and embrace the power of biohacking. You don't need to be an expert; just bring your spark, ask questions, and connect with others. Biohacking isn't a niche anymore; it's a lifestyle, a revolution, a must-have knowledge. Welcome to the future!" - Olia Chernova, Co-Founder of the Biohackers World.

Following this, Dr. Patrick K. Porter led a masterclass on "The Neuroscience of Biohacking the Brain," where he explored the potential of alpha and theta brainwave states for enhancing relaxation and recovery, integrating cutting-edge neuroscience with ancient healing practices. Attendees had the chance to win wellness tools during his session, courtesy of Braintap.

Our goal is to empower individuals to take charge of their health through knowledge and practical strategies. We look forward to continuing this journey into the future of biohacking.”

Mick Safron, Founder and CEO of the Biohackers World

Keynotes from Clayton Thomas provided deep insights into biohacking strategies for optimal health. He shared "The Quantum Secrets to Biohacking," focusing on personal playbooks for health. Philipp Samor von Holtzendorff-Fehling's presentation emphasized the role of quantum energy in enhancing bodily functions.

"At Biohackers World, you feel the true spirit of community—a place where people come together, not just to share knowledge and support each other's success. It's a partnership-driven gathering where everyone is focused on growth, health, and well-being." — Philipp Samor von

The day also featured two dynamic panel discussions. One was moderated by Jean Fallacara, where experts including Zane Griggs, Justin Roethlingshoefer, David Korsunsky, Dr. Evan Johnson, and Misha Hyman discussed the future of biohacking, emphasizing integrative health strategies for enhanced well-being and performance. Another panel was about health and longevity with evidence-based approaches. Philipp Samor von Holtendorff-Fehling, Dr. Patrick K. Porter, Kashif Khan, Dr. Cara Hartman, and Colette Schnabel discussed how innovative techniques and advanced testing, including quantum energy, neuroscience, and epigenetics, are redefining health optimization.

Other masterclasses included Dr. Alan Bauman on personalized hair restoration, Justin Roethlingshoefer on understanding body language for chronic illness prevention, and Dr. William Pawluk who introduced attendees to the benefits of PEMF therapy.

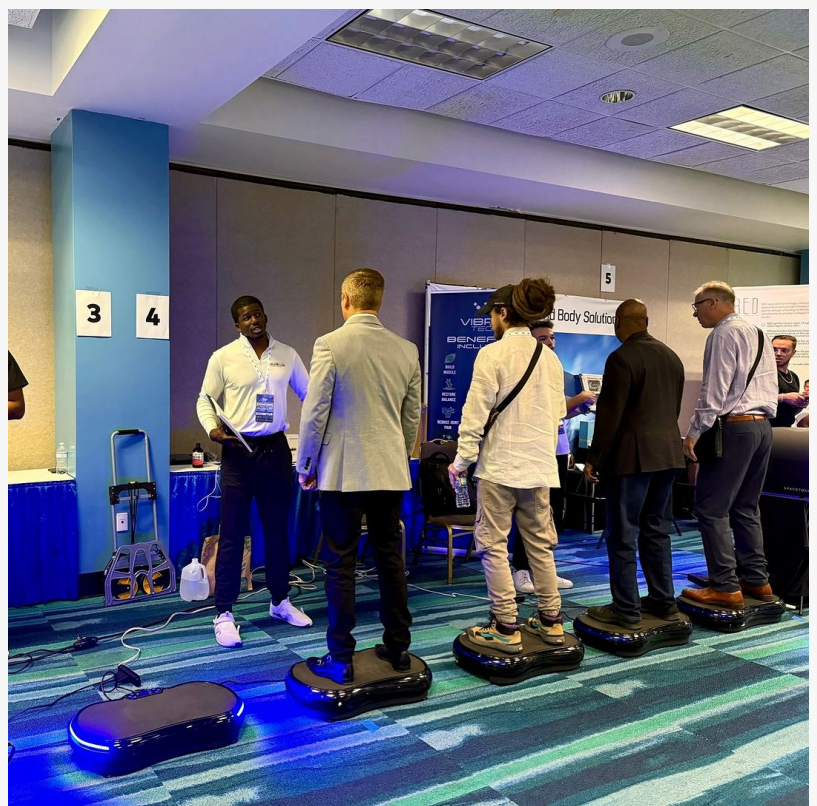

There was also a giveaway for attendees of Matthew Dawson's session, offering the chance to win an incredible wellness tool—the TruAge Epigenetic Test.

Susan Bratton closed the day with an engaging session on sexual biohacking.

Day Two: Expanding the Boundaries of Wellness Innovation

The second day began with a rejuvenating Sound Healing Gong Bath, offering participants a unique experience to relax and recalibrate their nervous systems.

Session led by Elizabeth Gaines dived into the empowering world of self-optimization through biohacking, and David Korsunsky focused on exploring the science and methodologies behind measuring longevity outcomes.

Kashif Khan discussed reversing biological age through genetic blueprinting, while Dr. Cara Hartman introduced the revolutionary cellular therapy, Celergen.

A highlight of the day was two panel discussions on “Biohack Your Age” and “Empowering Women's Health”. The first was moderated by Kristen McAdams, featuring insights from leading experts on advanced supplementation and restoration techniques: Clayton Thomas, Matthew Dawson, Dr. William Pawluk, Dr.

Daniel Hulsey, Dr. Russell J. Kort. The second panel featured Jenny Jones, Melissa Bolona, Andi Lew, Natalia Naila, Susan Bratton, and Taja Abitbol.

The experts explored practical strategies to optimize physical, mental, and emotional well-being, offering insights to help women thrive in every stage of life.

There were more sessions from Mark White about the revolutionary OMNIWave™ and GAINSWave® therapies, and Dr. Lauren Leiva, who explores the latest advancements in biofeedback technology and how they can revolutionize mind-body optimization. Jean Fallacara presented practical insights, evidence-based approaches, and actionable strategies to enhance our current well-being and pave the way for a vibrant and fulfilling future, while Alvaro Nuñez Alfaro pushed the boundaries on the human potential by sharing his amazing experience from 6 marathons in 6 days carrying his own food and supplies across the Sahara Desert.

Cru Von Holtzendorff-Fehling led a healing session where the attendees could reconnect with their inherent wisdom and re-access their personal path to abundance.

Tam N Vu and Dr. Daniel Hulsey conducted two master classes, where guests learned about innovative tools and techniques that can enhance the brain's performance and benefit their longevity, and delved into technological advancements regarding brain health, optimized blood flow, and musculoskeletal balance.

The day concluded with a grand giveaway, offering attendees the chance to win wellness gifts, showcasing the event’s commitment to promoting health and wellness.
