Plants – the gift that keeps on giving

Oakland® Holly

Spruce up holiday décor with the Oakland Holly! This evergreen shrub boasts rich foliage and bright red berries, creating a classic Christmas look. Its branches lend well to winter arrangements and wreaths, while its natural pyramidal shape will accent holiday displays. Maturing 15–20’ tall and 12–15’ wide, it requires minimal pruning. It thrives in full sun to part shade in USDA Zones 6a-9b and is ideal for hedges or container gardens. (Available from $19.98 at PlantsByMail.com and garden centers nationwide.)

Autumn Fire® Encore® Azalea - With evergreen foliage and ruby semi-double blooms in spring, summer, and fall, this four-season stunner shines all year long. In winter, its deep green leaves shift to a purple bronze, adding visual interest to containers and the landscape during the holiday season. This compact variety reaches 2.5' high by 3' wide when mature, making Autumn Fire fit for planters and small spaces, as well as low hedges and mass plantings. Hardy in USDA Zones 6-10. (Available from $21.99 at PlantsByMail.com)
