The months of hard work, dedication, and planning came together to create a truly magical evening for our award-winning authors.”

Nim Stant

Reflecting on the night, Nim Stant, founder of the International Impact Book Awards, shared her heartfelt appreciation: “Reflecting on the International Impact Book Awards gala, I'm filled with gratitude for everything that made this night unforgettable. The months of hard work, dedication, and planning came together to create a truly magical evening for our award-winning authors. Watching each of them take the stage, witnessing the passion and relentless effort that brought their stories to life— it's an experience that exceeded every expectation I had.

“My vision for this platform has always been to honor authors and ensure they feel seen, appreciated, and celebrated. This event is a testament to that vision, showing each author that their voice matters, that their work has a place in the world, and that they are building a lasting legacy.

“And yet, this is only the beginning of our journey. Next year, we're dreaming even bigger, planning a grand gala in Hollywood. We're excited to bridge worlds, bringing together celebrated authors and our new award-winning authors to share insights and elevate their stories on a larger stage. It's an incredible path forward, and I can't wait to see where it leads us all.”

Reflecting on the inspiring evening, the International Impact Book Awards proved not only to be a night of celebration but a profound gathering of creative minds, each united by a shared purpose—to inspire and uplift through storytelling. With each author who took the stage, a new chapter was written, one filled with hope, resilience, and the power of words to make a lasting difference. As the journey continues, the awards remain dedicated to recognizing authors' hard work and dreams, forging a community that celebrates impactful stories from around the globe.

About the International Impact Book Awards:
