Daya Naef speaks at XPX Expo, Nov 14 in Atlanta, on AI's role in exit planning—debunking myths, showcasing real uses, and exploring ethics in AI.

ATLANTA, GA, UNITED STATES,
November 11, 2024 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- Daya Naef, renowned speaker and "law firm co-pilot," is set to deliver a captivating presentation on the transformative role of artificial intelligence (AI) in exit planning for law firms at the XPX (Exit Planning Exchange) Expo in Atlanta, Georgia, on November 14, 2024. Taking place at the prestigious Cobb Galleria, this event will bring together leading professionals from across the country to discuss strategies for successful business transitions.

Daya Naef's 40-minute session, "AI for Exit Planning, Practical Applications, Ethical Considerations, and Future Trends," promises to provide attendees with an eye-opening exploration into the evolving relationship between AI and the legal profession. Designed for legal advisors involved in exit planning and firms aiming to integrate long-term strategic planning from the outset, the presentation will dig deep into how AI is reshaping the legal landscape—not by replacing lawyers but by augmenting their capabilities and improving efficiency.

Naef's interactive workshop will address key topics, including:

- Unpacking Common Misconceptions: A close look at the myths surrounding AI and its role in the legal industry, clarifying what AI can and cannot do.
- Exploring Real-World Applications: Practical examples of how AI tools streamline processes, enhance decision-making, and improve client outcomes in exit planning.

- Navigating Ethical Challenges: Insight into the ethical considerations that come with AI adoption, including data privacy, bias, and maintaining client trust.

“This session is an opportunity for anyone interested in the future of law—whether an AI advocate, a skeptic, or simply curious—to gain valuable insights into AI’s potential to revolutionize exit planning,” says Naef. “AI is not here to replace lawyers, but to enable them to work smarter and deliver even greater value to their clients.”

As a well-established coach and consultant for law firms, Daya Naef has helped countless legal professionals understand and integrate modern tools into their practice to better serve their clients. Her expertise in aligning technology with strategic planning makes her a highly sought-after speaker on topics at the intersection of law, business, and innovation.
