This year's FCCA Annual Conference was held in St. Maarten from October 22 to 25, marking 60 years of cruise operations in the country. Recognized as a key strategic partner, The Dolphin Company reaffirmed its commitment to the cruise industry by aligning with its growth and evolution to deliver exceptional services. Company representatives participated in forums and workshops focused on tourism best practices and a presidential panel with CEOs of major cruise lines, among others.

The Dolphin Company's presence focused on showcasing the diversity of its products and services across 11 habitats and parks strategically located in key cruise destinations.”

Freddie Gómez, Chief Commercial Officer of The Dolphin Company.

“The Dolphin Company's presence focused on showcasing the diversity of its products and services across 11 habitats and parks strategically located in key cruise destinations, including Punta Cana, Dolphin Discovery St. Kitts & Nevis,

Jamaica, Dolphin Discovery Grand Cayman Islands, Cozumel, and Costa Maya in Mexico. Our

parcs and habitats offer visitors unique and sustainable experiences, highlighting excellence in interactive programs with various marine species and adventure tours as part of the Caribbean's activity offerings," commented Freddie Gómez, Chief Commercial Officer of The Dolphin Company.

With the cruise industry continuously expanding, The Dolphin Company significantly contributes to its growth by exceeding expected participation levels and creating new guest experiences through its exciting parks like Yaaman Adventure Park. The company has also become a pillar of cultural and social development in the communities where it operates, reaffirming its commitment to local development, sustainability, and marine education through its Dolphin Swimming Programs in Jamaica at each destination.
