Originally launched in Canada, Oven 360 Pizza and Gelato has rapidly gained recognition for its commitment to delivering exceptional authentic pizza made from traditional family recipes. With 10 successful locations already established, the brand is now bringing its signature Neapolitan pizzas and creamy, handcrafted gelato to the U.S. market.

Co-founders Remo Tortola and Lucio Franceschelli, both hailing from Miranda, Italy, launched Oven 360 after noticing a gap in the pizza market for truly authentic Neapolitan pizza in North America. By combining traditional Italian pizza-making techniques with innovative twists, the duo created a restaurant concept that offers much more than just pizza—Oven 360 is also known for its homemade gelato, crafted with fresh, high-quality ingredients using time-honored Italian methods.

“We’ve always dreamed of bringing a genuine Italian dining experience to the U.S.,” said co-founder Remo Tortola.

“Columbus has such a vibrant food scene, and we’re thrilled to introduce our authentic pizzas and gelato to the community. We believe that Oven 360 will quickly become a favorite spot for anyone who appreciates the rich flavors of traditional Italian pizza.”

Lucio Franceschelli, co-founder, added, “Oven 360 is about more than just great pizza. It’s about sharing the culture and craftsmanship of Italy. From our signature pizza dough to our gelato, everything we offer is made with the utmost care and dedication to quality. We can’t wait for Columbus residents to enjoy the full experience of Italian hospitality.”
