

Jatheon Cloud Now Available in Amazon Marketplace

Jatheon Technologies announced that the company's flagship product for the retention of business communications is now available in AWS Marketplace.

TORONTO, ONTARIO, CANADA,
December 4, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/

-- Jatheon Cloud is designed to meet the rigorous compliance and ediscovery requirements of heavily regulated industries, including the public sector. The platform enables organizations to securely store, manage, and quickly retrieve business-critical communications, including email, social media, mobile messaging, and collaboration data, with advanced search and audit-ready features. By joining the AWS Marketplace, Jatheon Cloud offers users the reliability, scalability, and security benefits of AWS, ensuring data protection and streamlined compliance with industry regulations like HIPAA, FINRA, and GDPR.

By accessing Jatheon Cloud in AWS Marketplace, customers can quickly and easily integrate and automate compliance and oversight of communications from various data sources."

AWS customers will now have access to Jatheon Cloud directly within AWS Marketplace. The Jatheon platform provides AWS customers with the ability to streamline the purchase and management of Jatheon Cloud within their AWS Marketplace account.

Launching Jatheon Cloud on AWS Marketplace represents a significant milestone for us and an exciting opportunity for our customers," said Marko Dinic, CEO of Jatheon Technologies. "By accessing Jatheon Cloud in AWS

Marketplace, customers can quickly and easily integrate and automate compliance and oversight of communications from various data sources. With the added flexibility, scalability, and security of AWS, our clients across regulated industries can focus on their core operations without worrying about the complexities of data retention and retrieval.”
