With increased demand and challenges such as summer heat and holiday closures, planning ahead is key. Here's how to make a move stress-free this festive season:

1. Book Early: The holidays are peak season for movers. Secure moving dates well in advance to avoid disappointment.
2. Declutter Before Packing: Reduce the moving load by donating or recycling items that are no longer needed.
3. Plan Around Public Holidays: Be mindful of Christmas and New Year's closures that could affect the move.
4. Pack Smart: Label boxes clearly and keep holiday essentials, like gifts and decorations, easily accessible.
5. Beat the Heat: Schedule moves in the early morning or late afternoon to avoid summer's peak temperatures.

Moving at Christmas can be tricky so prepare early, expect the unexpected and label everything.”
