Potted Potter is returning to Cleveland this January

Quidditch match! Even if you don't know the difference between a horcrux and a Hufflepuff, Potted Potter will make you roar with laughter.

Starring in the Cleveland performances are Lottie Bell, Amelia Gann, and Josephine Starte, of which two will appear at each performance. The trio made their Potted Potter debuts in Dublin in 2023 before playing an acclaimed Toronto holiday season.

Starvox Touring and Potted Productions first introduced the fabulously funny show to North American audiences in Toronto in 2012, where it received rave reviews. Over the past several years the show has completed multiple tours, delighting crowds with its clever wit. Potted Potter has left audiences feeling positively nostalgic and has sold out theatres across the United Kingdom, Australia, New Zealand, Singapore, Dubai, and Canada. Whether you're team Gryffindor or don't know the difference between a Death Eater and Dumbledore, this show is a seriously good time.
