

Anaptyx Redefines Bulk Wi-Fi Services with Launch of Beyond Wi-Fi Solutions

Kenneth Carnesi, Jr., CEO of Anaptyx, announces the rollout of Beyond Wi-Fi, an innovative bundled solution to meet growing market demands.

MYRTLE BEACH, SC, UNITED STATES, December 6, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Anaptyx, LLC, a leader in the Bulk Wi-Fi service industry since 2007, has introduced its Beyond Wi-Fi(TM) Solutions--a transformative approach that integrates cutting-edge Bulk Wi-Fi services with TV and custom-designed security systems.

Beyond Wi-Fi(TM) empowers clients by offering them more than just connectivity," said Carnesi. "It's a solution that enhances their experience while providing cost-effective and scalable options."

Kenneth Carnesi, Sr.

This all-in-one solution, designed to streamline operations for clients in government, municipalities, hospitality, and multi-unit developments, is setting a new benchmark for efficiency and service.

"Our new Beyond Wi-Fi(TM) program addresses the increasing need for bundled, comprehensive solutions in today's digital-first world," said Kenneth Carnesi, Jr., CEO of Anaptyx.

"By combining connectivity, entertainment, and security into one service, we deliver unmatched convenience and reliability."

A Legacy of Excellence

Founded by Kenneth B. Carnesi, Jr., Anaptyx has built a reputation for its unparalleled Bulk Wi-Fi network engineering and customer service. The company specializes in guiding clients from the initial consultation phase through installation, operation, and long-term maintenance.

This dedication to excellence has earned Anaptyx numerous accolades, including being named Best Internet Service Provider in Myrtle Beach for three consecutive years. In addition, Kenneth Carnesi, Sr., recently received the 2024 Global Recognition Award and is a finalist for the 2025 ONCON ICON Top 100 COO Award. "Our commitment to quality and customer satisfaction has always been the cornerstone of our success," said Carnesi. "These awards are a testament to the trust our clients place in us."

Beyond Wi-Fi(TM): Tailored for Modern Needs

Anaptyx's new Beyond Wi-Fi(TM) program introduces a tiered service model, offering flexibility to meet diverse client requirements:

Bulk Wi-Fi Essential: Provides high-speed, reliable Wi-Fi, secured by DNSFliter(TM) threat protection system and tailored to meet the needs of residential and commercial properties.

Bulk Wi-Fi Essential Plus: Includes integrated TV services, offering clients the option of digital cable, streaming platform, or satellite solutions.

Bulk Wi-Fi Premium: The ultimate package, bundling high-speed Wi-Fi and TV services with a custom-designed security camera surveillance system.

This approach ensures that clients can choose the level of service that best suits their specific needs, simplifying vendor management while enhancing operational efficiency.

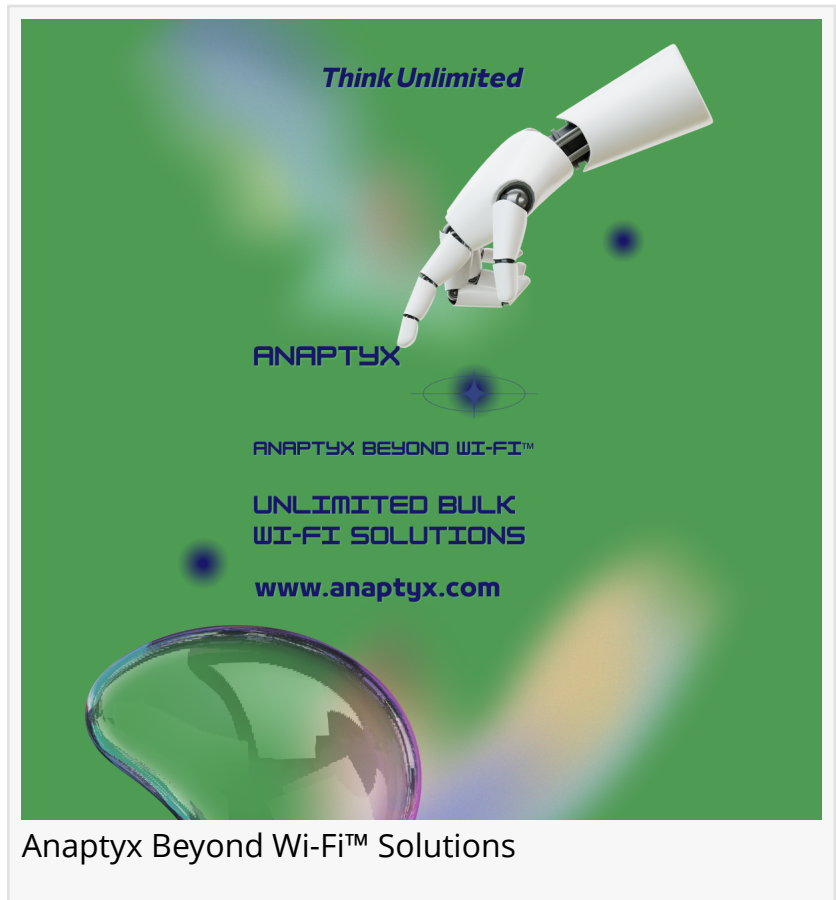

"Beyond Wi-Fi(TM) empowers clients by offering them more than just connectivity," said Carnesi. "It's a solution that enhances their experience while providing cost-effective and scalable options."

Industry-Leading Innovation

As demand for integrated digital solutions grows, Anaptyx is uniquely positioned to lead the charge. The company's focus on innovation and its ability to adapt to the evolving needs of its clients have made it a trusted partner in the telecommunications sector.

Beyond Wi-Fi(TM) builds on this legacy by addressing key challenges faced by modern businesses and communities, from managing multiple vendors to maintaining seamless connectivity across large-scale properties.

"With Beyond Wi-Fi(TM), we're not just keeping pace with the industry--we're shaping its future,"
