The company is also generating buzz for its feature film project, The Final Fight, currently in development. Based on a true story, the film explores themes of familial redemption, elder abuse, and systemic corruption. Complementing the film, is a documentary about Marvin Stein, a fitness industry pioneer and owner of the iconic Shelton Health Club. The documentary delves into Marvin’s groundbreaking contributions to modern fitness and his club’s role in Operation UNIRAC, a vital FBI initiative. During this operation, Louis Freeh went undercover, posing as a corrupt lawyer, with the Shelton Health Club serving as a pivotal location. These events were detailed in a 1993 Vanity Fair article and Freeh’s book, My FBI: Bringing Down the Mafia, Investigating Bill Clinton, and Fighting the War on Terror.
