Michael Jackson ONE™ at Mandalay Bay Resort and Casino continues to push boundaries with its groundbreaking production by introducing advanced technological elements, alongside the addition of new acts and fresh costumes. Fans from around the world will be enveloped in a reimagined version of the iconic production that further melds modern technology and the legacy of Michael Jackson to create a truly one-of-a-kind production.

The state-of-the-art theater comes to life further with brand-new high-tech drones and digital panels, ensuring guests are completely immersed in a sensory journey that brings every moment to life around them. Audiences can expect newly designed costumes, some new choreography and an innovative new act making this electric production an even more must-see show. Set to a soundtrack full of the King of Pop's greatest hits including "Billie Jean", "Thriller," "Beat It" and "Smooth Criminal," Michael Jackson ONE™ will now spotlight an additional fan-favorite song.

Mike Newquist, President of the Resident & Affiliate Shows Divisions at Cirque du Soleil, emphasized the importance of continuous innovation, "These new upgrades allow us to expand upon our storytelling. We're always seeking ways to keep the show fresh and exciting for our audiences, making sure each performance leaves a lasting, profound impression."

Performing more than 4,500 shows to more than 5.5 million guests since opening, the ever-evolving production continues to weave together cutting-edge technology with the artistry of live performers, introducing new elements that seamlessly blend together. Michael Jackson ONE performs Thursday – Monday at 7 p.m. and 9:30 p.m. and has recently extended its contract at Mandalay Bay through 2030.
