Why Vote?

Shayne Snavely announced his race along with 6 other candidates. Shayne brings the following

- Veteran Leadership: The only veteran in the race, Snavely. understands the meaning of service and sacrifice.
- Fighter for the People: Unlike candidates beholden to special interests, Snavely stands firm against corporate elites and the Richmond establishment.
- Proven Experience: Snavely knows the legislative process and has a track record of fighting for working-class families.

“This election has been structured for low turnout, held on a Friday evening in the cold at a venue with limited capacity,” Snavely said. “Let’s overwhelm them with a wave of voters who care about their community and demand representation that fights for you, not the elites. Brave the cold, stay until the end, and show them that the people of District 10 will not be silenced.”

A Call to Action for the Working Class:

The establishment is betting on apathy, but District 10 voters can prove them wrong. This election determines who will vote on and introduce legislation that impacts your daily life for years to come.

The voters need a warrior in Richmond, representing the hardworking people of Virginia, not the special interests. “Let’s send a message to the establishment that District 10 cares deeply about its future. Your voice matters—show up, stand tall, and vote for a fighter who will never back down.”
