

Missouri State Medical Association Adds Member Benefit Through Resolve Partnership

Comprehensive Contract Review and Compensation Data Access Now Available for MSMA Members

MO, UNITED STATES, December 16, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Missouri State Medical Association (MSMA) is pleased to announce a new member benefit through a partnership with Resolve, a recognized leader in physician contract review and data services. With this benefit, MSMA members can receive essential support to negotiate competitive employment contracts, whether they are entering their first role post-training or re-evaluating an existing agreement.

“We want our members to take a proactive role in contract review to safeguard their careers and financial wellbeing ensuring they can practice medicine and care for their patients as they see fit,” said Jeff Howell, MSMA Executive Vice President. “We have partnered with Resolve to help our members thoroughly examine the terms and conditions outlined in their employment or partnership agreements. MSMA is committed to advocating for physician-led, team-based care, protecting public help, and helping physicians achieve fairness, protection, and clarity in their professional agreements.”

Resolve is dedicated to identifying important contract terms and helping physicians achieve agreements that optimize compensation, improve work-life balance, and protect against unexpected workplace changes. By providing contracts that meet physicians’ unique needs, Resolve aims to support both job satisfaction and career longevity. This new benefit offers MSMA members access to Resolve’s contract review services and compensation data at a discounted rate.
