This award represents the trust and loyalty of customers who have come to rely on Champion's consistent quality and dedicated service. Since its founding in 2020, this family-owned HVAC company has been committed to delivering comfort with a personal touch—a commitment that's grown to embody the heart of Champion Heating & Air.

At the helm of Champion Heating & Air is Josh Marer, a professional athlete turned HVAC expert, who has channeled the dedication, discipline, and drive from his athletic career into running the business. "Comfort in your home is what matters most, and we're determined to deliver it," Josh says.

Champion Heating & Air offers an extensive range of HVAC and air quality services, including residential and commercial HVAC sales and service, NADCA-certified air duct cleaning, insulation services, air quality testing, blower door testing, and crawlspace encapsulation. From major repairs to routine maintenance, Champion's services are designed to enhance customers' daily quality of life. "Every job we take on is an opportunity to improve our customers' homes and lives," Josh explains. "We approach every project with attention to detail, treating every home as if it were our own."

That attention to detail is at the core of Champion Heating & Air's philosophy of "reliable and honest service," a foundation of trust that has earned them a loyal following across the region. "This award reflects the community's appreciation, and we couldn't be prouder," says Josh. By putting customers first and going the extra mile, Josh and his team have built a reputation as a trusted partner in comfort, creating a reliable and personal service experience for every customer.

With the changing seasons and the demand for indoor comfort on the rise, Champion Heating & Air remains ready to serve. They're more than just an HVAC provider; they're a family business dedicated to making every home feel as comfortable as possible.
