

Phoenix Law Firm Giving Away Free Uber Credits to Save Lives This New Year's Eve

Sober Ride Initiative Valid in Phoenix Area Only

PHOENIX, AZ, UNITED STATES,
December 26, 2024 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- As New Year's Eve approaches, Feller & Wendt, a personal injury law firm in Phoenix, is once again stepping up to prioritize community safety. The firm is partnering with Uber in their wildly popular campaign to provide $20 credits to the first 250 people who sign up—ensuring residents have a safe and reliable way to get home after celebrating.

The credits will be valid exclusively for rides in the Phoenix area between 5:00 PM on December 31, 2024, and 12:00 PM on January 1, 2025. Each participant is limited to one credit to help as many people as possible make responsible choices this holiday season.

The annual program is part of Feller & Wendt's ongoing commitment to promoting safety and supporting the Phoenix community.

"We've seen firsthand the devastating consequences of impaired driving, especially during the holidays," Adam Dougherty, Partner at Feller & Wendt said. "This initiative is

- In 2023, there were 5,761 alcohol-related crashes in Arizona, with 308 resulting in fatalities.
- Males accounted for 72.7% of alcohol-related drivers involved in crashes.
- More than half of alcohol-related crashes occur on weekends, with the majority happening during evening and nighttime hours.

"Driving under the influence doesn't just break the law—it tears families apart. By providing these Uber credits, we're making it as easy as possible for people to choose safety over risk. Share this program with friends and loved ones, and let's start the New Year on a safe note," Dougherty added.
