Reconstruction editorial staff for meeting a high set of standards. Applicants were required to submit a third-party verification of their sales total in 2023, as well as include a breakdown of the work that generated those sales in order to qualify for consideration.

This honor, bestowed annually by one of the industry’s most respected publications, highlights Ruston Paving’s unwavering commitment to excellence, innovation, and client satisfaction in the field of pavement maintenance and reconstruction.

Top Contractors were selected in four industry segments: paving, seal coating, striping, and pavement repair. Ruston Paving Company’s highly acclaimed full range of innovative construction and asphalt paving services particularly stood out for the contractor’s steadfast commitment to delivering customers a quality product in a timely fashion at competitive prices.

As a recipient of this prestigious award, Ruston Paving joins an exclusive group of industry leaders who have demonstrated outstanding performance, integrity, and innovation in pavement maintenance and reconstruction.

"The Top Contractor lists are a way to recognize and acknowledge the incredible hard work that everyone in this industry does. From the lute to the paver, the sales, and the project managers, everyone works together to make it happen," says Brandon Noel, Editor of Pavement Maintenance & Reconstruction Magazine. "For twelve years, the companies who appear on these lists represent some of the very best across the country. We are privileged to serve the men and women of this great industry, by continuing to recognize their time, labor, and achievement."
