BlueStar TeleHealth, a leader in remote

care management, and HealthBus, an innovative digital healthcare delivery platform, are excited to announce a partnership designed to improve patient care and enhance the operational efficiency of healthcare providers.

This collaboration connects HealthBus advanced platform, which seamlessly matches physicians and employers with healthcare solutions, to BlueStar's proven, technology-enabled chronic care programs. Together, they deliver comprehensive remote care that enhances quality of life for patients while supporting clinical staff in providing exceptional care.

Empowering Physicians with Seamless Remote Care Solutions

Physicians often struggle to integrate remote patient monitoring and chronic care management into their busy practices. BlueStar eliminates these barriers by offering:

Trusted Support: BlueStar's clinical professionals act as an extension of the physician's office, providing empathetic, knowledgeable coaching and care escalation when necessary—"like having a clinician in the family who is just a phone call away."

Operational Efficiency: Physicians can deliver remote care with minimal disruption to their workflows, enabling healthier patients and increased revenue without logistical headaches.

"Our partnership with HealthBus ensures that physicians can seamlessly extend their care beyond the office, giving patients the support they need while maximizing efficiency and profitability," said Admiral Rob Wray, Founder and CEO of BlueStar TeleHealth.

Transforming Chronic Care for Employers and Employees

Employers choose BlueStar's chronic care programs for their:

Proven Effectiveness: Superior health outcomes delivered at a cost-effective price.

Equity-Focused Approach: Tailored interventions that match support to each individual's unique activation level and needs, enabling employers to offer these programs to a broader population—not just high-risk employees.

A Vision for the Future of Digital Healthcare

Together, BlueStar TeleHealth and HealthBus are transforming remote care delivery by addressing the needs of patients, physicians, and employers. This partnership represents a shared commitment to innovation, equity, and better health outcomes.
