WASHINGTON DC, DC, UNITED STATES, January 9, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- From the press room of L-Strategies the official press of Veterans for America First:

The National Veterans Group VFAF has sent a letter to Speaker Johnson with a request to consider Congressman Cory Mills for the Congressional Medal of Honor announced the organizational president CPT. Robert Cornicelli

The commendatory section of the letter included:

Congressman Mills is a decorated combat veteran who has exemplified courage, dedication, and selfless service throughout his career. Beyond his distinguished military service in some of the most dangerous theaters of operation, his post-military efforts have been nothing short of heroic.

In 2021, Congressman Mills led the first successful overland rescue of Americans in Afghanistan, setting a precedent for private humanitarian efforts in the wake of the chaotic U.S. withdrawal. In 2023, he orchestrated the rescue of 255 Americans from Israel, and in 2024, he facilitated the rescue of 23 Americans and 59 mentally and physically disabled children from Haiti. His actions during these high-risk missions demonstrated exceptional leadership and a steadfast commitment to saving lives, often at great personal risk.
