markets infrastructure and data provider, has won a coveted Brandon Hall Group Bronze Award for Excellence in the Best Advance in Unique Talent Management Technology category in the 2024 Brandon Hall Group Excellence in Technology Awards™.

This accolade celebrates LSEG's groundbreaking initiative, "LSEG Leverages Skills-Based Approach to Drive Equitable Promotion Process," which underscores the company's commitment to advancing talent management through technology. By partnering with Fuel50's talent marketplace technology, LSEG implemented a skills-based promotion framework that enhances transparency, reduces bias, and creates equitable career growth opportunities across the organization.

This achievement highlights LSEG's dedication to building a workplace where every employee has the tools and opportunities to thrive.

The award winners were announced on December 5, 2024, and the full list can be viewed here: <https://excellenceawards.brandonhall.com/winners/>

Asi DeGani, Director of Skills and Talent Development at LSEG said: "We are thrilled to be recognized for the work we have done incorporating skills data into the promotion process. We know that data-based decisions lead to more equitable and fair outcomes. When this is done with transparency it invites co-ownership from employees by involving them in the process. It keeps us accountable for the decisions we make and allows us to stand behind those decisions with confidence."

"In our 31st year, the Excellence in Technology Awards continue to showcase the best innovations in learning, talent management, talent acquisition, HR, workforce management, and sales enablement technologies. We are proud to receive applications from a diverse range of organizations globally, reflecting the ever-evolving landscape of technology solutions," said Brandon Hall Group Chief Operating Officer Rachel Cooke, leader of the Excellence Awards program.

Entries were evaluated by a panel of veteran, independent senior industry experts, Brandon Hall Group analysts, and executives based upon these criteria: fit the need, program design, functionality, innovation, and overall measurable benefits.

Excellence Award winners are scheduled to be honored at Brandon Hall Group's HCM Excellence Conference, January 28-30, 2025, at the Hilton West Palm Beach, Florida. Select winners will also serve as presenters in breakout sessions, sharing their leading practices during the conference.

"Our awards program is distinguished by the thorough evaluation process led by industry experts. Judges meticulously score each entry, and our executive leadership team at Brandon Hall Group reviews and validates the judging and scoring. The level of the award is solely determined by the number of points, ensuring a fair and unbiased recognition of excellence in technology," said Brandon Hall Group Chief Executive Officer Mike Cooke.
