Starfire Sports and HLP have already begun discussions and scheduled site tours with media buying agencies and large corporate businesses in the Greater Seattle Area. These conversations aim to identify potential naming rights partners and develop sponsorship opportunities that align with Starfire Sports’ mission of inclusivity and community impact.

High Level Promotions, a leader in creating impactful sponsorship opportunities, will collaborate with Starfire Sports to develop tailored sponsorship strategies and secure high-value partnerships. This strategic alliance aligns with Starfire Sports’ mission to provide world-class sports and STEM education experiences while fostering a vibrant community hub in Tukwila, WA.

Starfire Sports will be represented by Jake Beattiger, West Coast Market Manager for HLP, who will serve as the main point of contact for all sponsorship inquiries. Jake, a Seattle native who has been actively involved with youth sports in the Seattle area for the last 20 years, brings a deep understanding of the local community and market dynamics, making him a vital asset in connecting Starfire Sports with brands that align with its mission and values.

The High Level Promotions team brings years of experience in creating dynamic brand partnerships that drive growth and engagement for all the HLProperties it represents. This partnership underscores Starfire Sports' commitment to innovation and excellence, ensuring it remains a destination of choice for sports enthusiasts, community events, and corporate partners alike.
