THUNDER FEVER embodies the suddenness of a natural phenomenon, such as thunder and lightning, and the mixture of anxiety and intense emotional feelings that can come in that scenario. This album is filled with the tracks that best represent CIX. The title track, "THUNDER," is an electronic pop track that showcases CIX's unique rhythm with a powerful dance break. This song conveys confused emotions and intense stimulation from love by comparing them to thunder and lightning, creating an energetic and dynamic atmosphere throughout the track. The total narrative of the album starts tumultuous, leading listeners through their own anxieties, and ends with "My Everlasting Sun," which conveys the promise of CIX and their fans becoming each other's light and staying together forever without any fear, providing a warm and comforting energy to all listeners.

"You waited for a long time, FIX! We worked on this album by sharing many thoughts and opinions among members. From our title track, "THUNDER," you'll feel the vibe that only CIX can create. We also focused on creating the performance that can best embody who we are. We worked very hard on this album, so please look forward to it! Let's create great memories together again with this album!"

- HYUNSUK, Member of CIX
